

manus militum a band of soldiers aspiciēbant: aspicere look towards agnam: agna lamb

ōmina omens (signs from the gods) iecur liver lividum: lividus lead-coloured significat: significāre mean, indicate pallēscēbat: pallēscere grow pale precēs: precum prayers ac and secūtus having followed difficultāte: difficultās difficulty dēmittere let down, lower amāra: amārus bitter labra lips prēnsāvit: prēnsāre take hold of, clutch perdomita: perdomitus conquered armātōrum: armātī armed men suspiciātus having suspected ultiōnem: ultiō revenge insidiās: insidiae trap, ambush patefecit: patefacere reveal absurdum: absurdus absurd falsa: falsus false, untrue tormenta torture passus having suffered eādem the same sententiā: sententia opinion dēmōvī: dēmōvēre dismiss perfidiam: perfidia treachery apertē openly

rēgnum kingdom occupāre seize, take over ēn iūstitia! so this is justice! fidēs loyalty, trustworthiness perfidiorēs: perfidus treacherous, untrustworthy adhūc up till now iaciō: iacere throw vīcimus: vincere conquer cēdō, cēdere, cessī give in, give way clārus, clāra, clārum famous, distinguished cōspiciātus, cōspiciāta, cōspiciātum having caught sight of cūra, cūrae care enim for gerō, gerere, gessī, gestus wear honor, honōris honour, public position iaciō, iacere, iēcī, iactus throw immōtus, immōta, immōtum still, motionless locūtus, locūta, locūtum having spoken mandātum, mandātī instruction, order modus, modī manner, way, kind nimium too much ōrnō, ōrnāre, ōrnāvī, ōrnātus decorate pāreō, pārēre, pārui obey regressus, regressa, regressum having returned scio, scire, scīvī know tālis, tāle such unquam ever

venēnum, venenī poison

Book 3 Stage 23